

“I cannot remember in my life anything that I’ve been involved in where I have sensed so clearly the work of the Spirit” Archbishop Justin Welby

Archbishop Justin hopes to see every Church join this global wave of prayer from 10th - 20th May 2018. Here is how you can take part:

1. What can you do?

There are so many ideas different ways to pray at with free resources to download. Have a look and we’re sure you’ll find one for you. There are prayers and ideas you can download or take a look at www.cpo.org.uk/thykingdomcome for practical ways to help you pray for five family members, neighbours or friends from a leather band to a mug reminding you to pray during a break!

3. Tell us about it, and inspire others

Join the global online community and share what you are doing on social media. You may be able to find an event or activity near you by checking out www.thykingdomcome.global.

There are great videos to use in services and share in your networks at :

-  /thykingdomcome
-  thykingdomcomeglobal

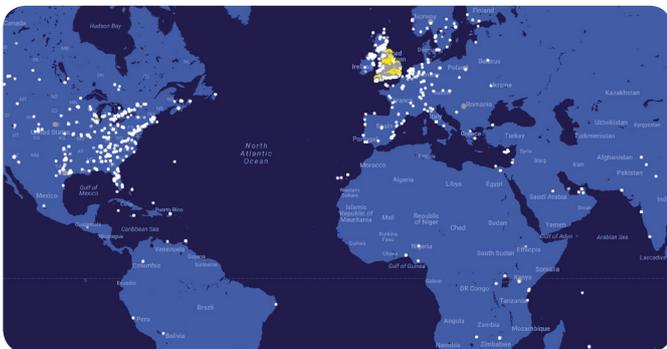

Link to us on any of these platforms:

-  @ThyKingdomComeUK
-  @thykingdom_come
-  @Pledge2Pray

Don't forget to hashtag #Pledge2Pray and #ThyKingdomCome in all your posts so we can help to promote what you are doing.

2. Make your light shine

Jesus calls us to be the light of the world. By signing up here to #Pledge2Pray and making your light shine on our map you can show that you’re joining in the global wave of prayer and inspire others to join in! Over the next few weeks we’ll keep in touch, and send you videos and resources to encourage and inspire you.

4. Be expectant

As we pray ‘Thy Kingdom Come’ let us consider what God might be calling us to do in our churches, our homes and in our own lives. We hope to support you on this continuing journey in helping us all becoming witnesses for Jesus. Keep an eye out for new resources throughout Thy Kingdom Come to help people share their faith.
